Attorneys for Defendants

Lowe's Companies, Inc. and

Lowe's Home Centers, LLC.

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC") and Defendants Lowe's Companies, Inc. and Lowe's Home Centers, LLC (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants") hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree ("Decree") to resolve the following as to all employees who have claims within the scope of the following Complaint and Charges:

A. The EEOC has conducted an investigation of charges brought by Leslie A. Tanimoto (EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 486-2007-00331), David Shaw (EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 520-2009-00075), and Gary White (EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 846-2009-18121) ("Charging Parties"), three former employees of Lowe's HIW, Inc. and Lowe's Home Centers Inc., subsidiaries of Lowe's Companies, Inc. and predecessors to Lowe's Home Centers, LLC (collectively, "Lowe's"), under Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), 42 U.S.C. § 12112. The Charging Parties have alleged that Lowe's violated the ADA by terminating them and a class of employees whose medical leave of absence exceeded Lowe's 180-day (and, subsequently, 240-day) maximum leave policy. The Parties desire to resolve these charges. The Charging Parties, the EEOC, and Lowe's do hereby resolve this matter as follows:

B. The EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 486-2007-00331 (Tanimoto/Lowe's HIW, Inc.) filed on June 13, 2007, alleging that Lowe's HIW, Inc. refused to provide Tanimoto with a reasonable accommodation in the form of an

1 extended medical leave of absence and terminated her employment in violation of the 2 ADA.

3 C. The EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 520-2009-00075 (David 4 Shaw/Lowe's Home Centers, Inc.) filed on October 27, 2008, alleging that Lowe's 5 Home Centers, Inc. refused to provide Shaw with a reasonable accommodation in the 6 form of an extended medical leave of absence and terminated his employment in 7 violation of the ADA.

8 D. The EEOC Charge of Discrimination No. 846-2009-18121 (Gary 9 White/Lowe's Home Centers, Inc.) filed on March 25, 2010, alleging that Lowe's 10 Home Centers, Inc. refused to provide White with a reasonable accommodation in the 11 form of an extended medical leave of absence and terminated his employment in 12 violation of the ADA.

13 E. Defendants deny all allegations set forth in or within the reasonable 14 scope of Charging Parties' charges of discrimination and this Lawsuit. Nothing in the 15 Decree shall be construed as an admission by Defendants.

16 I.

17 PURPOSES OF THE DECREE

18 A. The Parties to this Decree are the EEOC and Defendants. This Decree 19 shall be binding on and enforceable against Defendants and their respective officers, 20 directors, agents, successors and assigns.

21 B. The Parties have entered into this Decree for the following purposes:
22 1. To provide appropriate monetary and injunctive relief;
23 2. To resolve completely and fully all claims EEOC and Charging 24 Parties may have in this matter and in Charging Parties' charges of discrimination; 25 3. To ensure employment practices in compliance with federal law; 26 4. To ensure a workplace free from retaliation; 27
28

1 III.

2 JURISDICTION

3 A. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this 4 Lawsuit, which arises from EEOC Charges of Discrimination Nos. 486-2007-00331, 5 520-2009-00075 and 846-2009-18121. The Lawsuit asserts claims that, if proven, 6 would authorize the Court to grant the equitable relief set forth in this Decree.

7 B. The terms and provisions of this Decree are fair, reasonable, and just.

8 C. This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the 9 ADA/ADAAA and is not in derogation of the rights or privileges of any person.

10 D. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of the Lawsuit during the duration of 11 the Decree for the purposes of entering any order, judgment, or decree that may be 12 necessary to implement the relief provided herein.

13 IV.

14 EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

15 A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective 16 immediately upon the date which this Decree is entered by the Court (“the Effective 17 Date”).

18 B. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Decree shall remain in effect 19 for four (4) years after the Effective Date.

20 V.

21 MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

22 A. This Decree constitutes the complete understanding of the Parties with 23 respect to the matters contained herein.

24 B. By mutual agreement of the Parties, this Decree may be amended or 25 modified in the interests of justice and fairness in order to effectuate the provisions of 26 the Decree. No waiver, modification, or amendment of any provision of this Decree 27
28

1 will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of 2 each of the Parties.

3 C. If one or more of the provisions of the Decree are rendered unlawful or 4 unenforceable, the Parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon appropriate 5 amendments to this Decree in order to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. In any 6 event, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect unless the purposes 7 of the Decree cannot, despite the Parties' best efforts, be achieved.

8 VI.

9 COMPLIANCE AND RESOLUTION

10 A. The Parties expressly agree that if the EEOC has reason to believe that 11 Defendants have failed to comply with any provision of this Decree, the EEOC may 12 bring an action before this Court to enforce the Decree. Prior to initiating such action, 13 the EEOC will notify Defendants and their legal counsel of record, in writing, of the 14 nature of the dispute. This notice shall specify the particular provision(s) that the 15 EEOC believes Defendants have breached. Upon receipt, Defendants shall 16 acknowledge, in writing, receipt of the notice. Defendants shall have sixty (60) days 17 from the date it acknowledges receipt of the notice to attempt to resolve or cure the 18 breach, however, the Parties can agree to extend this period upon mutual consent.

19 B. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts 20 to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC notice.

21 C. After sixty (60) days have passed with no resolution or agreement to 22 extend the time further, the EEOC may petition this Court for resolution of the 23 dispute, seeking all available relief deemed appropriate by the Court, including an 24 extension of the term of the Decree for such period of time as Defendants or their 25 successors are shown to be in breach of the Decree.

1 VII.

2 MONETARY RELIEF

3 A. Monetary Relief – Class Fund and Payments to Charging Parties

4 In settlement of this Lawsuit and EEOC Charges of Discrimination Nos. 486-
 5 2007-00331, 520-2009-00075 and 846-2009-18121, Defendants shall pay the gross 6 sum of Eight Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($8,600,000) (“Gross Sum”).
 7 The Gross Sum is inclusive of all monetary relief to be paid to the three Charging 8 Parties and a “Class Fund” representing back pay and other monetary relief, as defined 9 and specified below, to be paid to Eligible Claimants, as defined below. EEOC has 10 full and complete discretion under the terms of this Decree to determine the amounts 11 of any payments to be distributed from the Class Fund to an Eligible Claimant and the 12 characterization of such payments as income, wages or otherwise, as hereinafter 13 described in this Decree. The EEOC defines an Eligible Claimant to take from the 14 Class Fund if he/she was subjected to the maximum leave policy at issue in violation 15 of the ADA and/or the ADAAA and was a disabled individual, associated with 16 someone with a disability, had a record of a disability, and/or was regarded as being 17 disabled. The EEOC has sole discretion to determine who is an Eligible Claimant.

18 B. Monetary Relief – Charging Parties Tanimoto, Shaw and White

19 1. In settlement of Charging Party Leslie Tanimoto’s claims in 20 Charge No. 486-2007-00331, Defendants shall pay to her such portion of the Gross 21 Sum as designated by the EEOC.

22 2. In settlement of Charging Party David Shaw’s claims in Charge 23 No. 520-2009-00075, Defendants shall pay to him such portion of the Gross Sum as 24 designated by the EEOC.

25 3. In settlement of Charging Party Gary White’s claims in Charge
 26 No. 846-2009-18121, Defendants shall pay to him such portion of the Gross Sum as 27 designated by the EEOC.
 28

1           4.     EEOC shall provide Defendants a Distribution List designating 2     payment amounts to Tanimoto, White, and Shaw. Within ten (10) days of receiving 3     the EEOC's Distribution list and funding the Class Fund, Defendants or their claims 4     administrator shall forward, via first class mail, checks from the Class Fund in the 5     amounts designated in the EEOC's Distribution List, less applicable withholdings, to 6     the Charging Parties. Within three (3) business days of mailing the aforementioned 7     payments, Defendants or their claims administrator shall submit a copy of the checks 8     and any related correspondence to Anna Y. Park, Regional Attorney, U.S. Equal 9     Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los 10    Angeles, California 90012. Payments to Tanimoto, Shaw, and White will be paid to 11    each in two checks: (a) a non-wage compensation check will be issued for damages 12    in the form of emotional pain and suffering, and for this payment Defendants or their 13    claims administrator, in the ordinary course, shall prepare and distribute 1099 tax 14    reporting forms to Tanimoto, Shaw, and White, if required by law, and shall make 15    any appropriate reports to the Internal Revenue Service and other tax authorities; and 16    (b) a wage payment, which payment will be treated as wages, subject to deductions 17    for federal and state withholding taxes and other deductions Defendants or their 18    claims administrator are required by law to make. Defendants shall pay the 19    employer's portion of all deductions required by law, including but not limited to 20    FICA and FUTA taxes, and such amounts shall not be deducted from payment of the 21    monetary settlement amounts of Tanimoto, Shaw, or White. Defendants or their 22    claims administrator, in the ordinary course, shall prepare and distribute W-2 forms 23    to Tanimoto, Shaw, and White. To the extent checks need to be reissued, EEOC will 24    notify Defendants or their claims administrator. The EEOC will inform the 25    Defendants of the allocation for wage and non-wage compensation for Tanimoto, 26    Shaw, and White.

1           C.     Monetary Relief – Class Fund

2           In settlement of the class-based claims in (1) this Lawsuit and (2) EEOC 3 Charges of Discrimination Nos. 486-2007-00331, 520-2009-00075 and 846-2009-
 4 18121 collectively, Defendants shall establish a qualified settlement fund (the “Class 5 Fund”) in the amount of Eight Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($8,600,000).
 6 Within fifteen (15) days of the Effective Date, Defendants shall deposit the Class 7 Fund amount in a segregated interest bearing account from which all payments for 8 class-based claims will be made. Defendants or their claims administrator shall make 9 required payments to Charging Parties from the Class Fund. Any interest earned at 10 the rate available to Defendants when the account is established will be maintained in 11 the account and disbursed to the class as designated by EEOC or distributed to the 12 agreed-upon charity as detailed below. A report of the amount of interest prior to the 13 final distribution shall be given to the EEOC to ensure distribution of the entire Class 14 Fund.

15           Acceptance of any monies by Eligible Claimants and the Charging Parties in no 16 way impact or disqualify them from seeking employment with Defendants and any of 17 their subsidiaries in the future.

18           D.     Claims Notice Process

19           1.     Defendants or their claims administrator shall provide notice as 20 follows to any former employee of Defendants who was terminated at any time 21 between January 1, 2004 and May 13, 2010, after having taken the maximum amount 22 of leave then available under Defendants’ leave of absence policies (“Potential 23 Claimants”) or to the extent such Potential Claimants are identified by the EEOC.

24           a.     Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, the Defendants 25 or their claims administrator shall

26                   i.     determine the validity of each such Potential 27 Claimant’s most-recent address utilizing the National Change of Address Database, 28

1                   ii.     send to each such Potential Claimant, via first class 2 mail, a Notice Letter, attached as Exhibit A, 1) notifying the Potential Claimant of his 3 or her ability to file a claim for monetary relief, 2) providing the Potential Claimant 4 with instructions on how to file a claim on-line with the claims administrator, 3) 5 providing the Potential Claimant with the opportunity to seek assistance in completing 6 the on-line claim, 4) enclosing a claim form or forms, attached as Exhibit B, and 5) 7 providing contact information for the EEOC,

8                   iii.    provide to the EEOC certification that the Defendants 9 or their claims administrator mailed a Notice Letter to each such Potential Claimant, 10 and

11                  iv.    instruct the USPS to notify Defendants or their claims 12 administrator of any undeliverable Notice Letters.

13 Any such Potential Claimant whose original Notice Letter is not returned 14 undeliverable shall have ninety (90) days from the date the Defendants or their claims 15 administrator mailed an unreturned Notice Letter to submit a claim form.

16                  b.     Within thirty (30) days of any Notice Letter being returned 17 to sender as undeliverable, Defendants or their claims administrator shall 18                   i.     research such Potential Claimant's most-recent 19 address and further use its best efforts, including a search of a database such as 20 Accurant, to locate such Potential Claimant,

21                   ii.    if Defendants or their claims administrator find a 22 more-recent address for such Potential Claimant, mail the Notice Letter to such 23 Potential Claimant at the more-recent address, and 24                   iii.   if Defendants or their claims administrator fail to find 25 a more recent address for any such Potential Claimant(s), Defendants or their claims 26 administrator shall in thirty (30) day intervals following the mailing of the first group 27

28

1 of Notice Letters, provide to the EEOC certification outlining efforts to locate such 2 Potential Claimant(s).

3 Any such Potential Claimant whose original Notice Letter was returned undeliverable 4 shall have ninety (90) days from the date of the re-mailing to submit a claim form.

5 Any such Potential Claimant whose original Notice Letter is returned undeliverable 6 and for whom Defendants or their claims administrator cannot find a more-recent 7 address within ninety (90) days of the Notice Letter being returned to sender as 8 undeliverable shall not be entitled to collect from the Class Fund, unless the EEOC 9 exercises reasonable discretion to determine otherwise. Any such Potential Claimant 10 whose second, re-mailed Notice Letter is returned undeliverable shall not be entitled 11 to collect from the Class Fund, unless the EEOC exercises reasonable discretion to 12 determine otherwise. At thirty (30) day intervals after mailing of the first group of 13 second, re-mailed Notice Letters, Defendants or their claims administrator shall 14 forward to EEOC either any second, re-mailed Notice Letter that has been returned 15 undeliverable or a list identifying any Potential Claimant whose second, re-mailed 16 Notice Letter was returned undeliverable. Any Potential Claimant whose original 17 Notice Letter or re-mailed Notice Letter is returned undeliverable more than one 18 hundred twenty (120) days after mailing shall not be entitled to collect from the Class 19 Fund, unless the EEOC exercises reasonable discretion to determine otherwise.

20 E. Claims Distribution Process

21 1. At thirty (30) day intervals after mailing the first group of Notice 22 Letters, Defendants or their claims administrator shall forward to the EEOC any 23 submitted or entered Claim Form received from any Potential Claimant. The claims 24 administrator shall provide Defendants and the EEOC electronic access to the claims 25 filed on-line. Defendants shall ensure that the claims administrator has access to the 26 EEOC and that the claims administrator works with the EEOC to identify qualifying 27
28

1 Eligible Claimants in accordance with the EEOC's criteria. The EEOC shall have 2 sole discretion to determine who is an Eligible Claimant.

3 2. The EEOC shall have the sole discretion to designate the amount 4 of the Class Fund to be distributed to each Eligible Claimant

5 3. Within one hundred twenty (120) days of the final re-mailing
6 required in VII.D.1.b. above, the EEOC shall issue a Distribution List to Defendants
7 and the claims administrator. Within sixty (60) days of receipt of the EEOC's 8 Distribution List, Defendants or their claims administrator shall forward via first class 9 mail to each Eligible Claimant payments for a gross amount equal to the full amount 10 set forth in the Distribution List, as described below. Each check will state the 11 following: "By accepting this check, you release any claim you may have that 12 Lowe's violated the Americans with Disabilities Act by terminating you because 13 your medical leave exceeded its maximum leave policy, and waive your right to sue 14 Lowe's on such a claim." Each check will remain valid for 90 days. To the extent 15 checks need to be reissued, EEOC will notify Defendant or its claims administrator.

16 a. For any Eligible Claimant EEOC designates as receiving an 17 amount for damages only in the form of emotional pain and suffering, as opposed to 18 damages for emotional pain and suffering in addition to damages for lost wages, 19 Defendants or their claims administrator shall mail a non-wage compensation check 20 which will be one-hundred percent (100%) of the distribution amount. Defendants or 21 their claims administrator shall prepare and distribute a 1099 tax reporting form to 22 each such Eligible Claimant, if required by law, and shall make any appropriate 23 reports to the Internal Revenue Service and other tax authorities. Within three (3) 24 business days of mailing the aforementioned payments, Defendants or their claims 25 administrator shall submit a report regarding the mailing of the checks to Anna Y.
26 Park, Regional Attorney, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East 27 Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, California 90012. The report shall show the 28

1 amount of the check, the date the check was mailed, the person to whom the check 2 was mailed, and the address to which the check was mailed.

3           b. For any Eligible Claimant EEOC designates as receiving an 4 amount for damages both in the form of emotional pain and suffering and in the form 5 of lost wages, Defendants or their claims administrator shall mail two checks for a 6 gross amount equal to the full amount set forth in the Distribution List. The two 7 checks will include one check for non-wage compensation for damages in the form of 8 emotional pain and suffering, and one check for wage compensation for damages in 9 the form of lost wages. The non-wage check will be ninety percent (90%) of the 10 distribution amount, and for this payment Defendants or their claims administrator 11 shall prepare and distribute a 1099 tax reporting form to each claimant, if required by 12 law, and shall make any appropriate reports to the Internal Revenue Service and other 13 tax authorities. The wage check will be ten percent (10%) of the distribution amount, 14 which payment will be treated as wages, subject to deductions for federal and state 15 withholding taxes and other deductions Defendants or their claims administrator are 16 required by law to make. For each wage check, Defendants or their claims 17 administrator shall (a) pay the employer's portion of all deductions required by law, 18 including but not limited to FICA and FUTA taxes, and such amounts shall not be 19 deducted from wage payments to the claimants and (b) prepare and distribute a W-2 20 form to each claimant in the ordinary course. Within three (3) business days of 21 mailing the aforementioned payments, Defendants or their claims administrator shall 22 submit a report regarding the mailing of the checks to Anna Y. Park, Regional 23 Attorney, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 24 4th Floor, Los Angeles, California 90012. The report shall show the amount of the 25 check, the date the check was mailed, the person to whom the check was mailed, and 26 the address to which the check was mailed. To the extent checks need to be reissued, 27 EEOC will notify Defendant or its claims administrator.

1           4. At least every sixty (60) days after Defendants or their claim 2 administrator issue checks pursuant to the Distribution List, Defendants or their 3 claims administrator shall provide the EEOC with a report listing cancelled checks, 4 and identifying any check not negotiated and/or returned non-negotiated to 5 Defendants or their claim administrator, to enable the Parties to track remaining 6 settlement funds for redistribution.

7           5. The EEOC may subsequently issue additional Distribution Lists, as 8 necessitated by further notice from Defendants or their claim administrator that any 9 check issued to a Claimant was not negotiated within ninety (90) days after issuance 10 and/or was returned non-negotiated to Defendants or their claims administrator. The 11 EEOC shall make reasonable and good faith effort to provide a Distribution List no 12 later than twelve months after the Effective Date, which shall be denoted as the 13 “Final Distribution List” and shall include, in addition to any additional Eligible 14 Claimants to be paid, any additional amounts to be remitted to Eligible Claimants 15 previously paid. No further Distribution Lists shall be issued by the EEOC after the 16 Final Distribution List is provided to Defendants or their claims administrator.
17 Within sixty (60) days of receipt of the EEOC’s Final Distribution List, Defendant or 18 its claims administrator shall forward via first class mail to each Eligible Claimant 19 payments for a gross amount equal to the full amount set forth in the Distribution 20 List. Within three (3) business days of mailing the aforementioned payments, 21 Defendants or their claims administrator shall submit a report regarding the mailing 22 of the checks to Anna Y. Park, Regional Attorney, U.S. Equal Employment 23 Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, California 24 90012. The report shall show the amount of the check, the date the check was 25 mailed, the person to whom the check was mailed, and the address to which the 26 check was mailed.

6. Defendants or their claims administrator will notify the EEOC of any funds remaining in the Class Fund at least 60 days before the expiration of the Decree. Within thirty (30) days of the latest date on which a check sent to a Claimant becomes void, money in the Class Fund that remains undistributed shall be donated to a charity that promotes equal opportunities for people with disabilities that is approved by the EEOC.

F. Extending Deadline to Return Claims Forms for Good Cause

For good cause, the EEOC may grant an exemption of any above-cited deadline to return a claims form, provided however that Defendants have no obligation to pay any money from the Class Fund to an Eligible Claimant or Potential Claimant after the date this Decree expires.

12 SPECIFIC INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

13 A. Equal Employment Opportunity Consultant

14 1. Defendants have retained Equal Employment Opportunity 15 Consultants ("Consultants") that have been approved by the EEOC to assist
